I just bought one of these Folstaff staffs. Last Saturday my cheap collapsible hiking staff collapsed when it was not supposed to and I almost went swimming. Not the first time this has happened, so I finally gave in and ordered from LL Bean. $99, free shipping, and it arrived in 2 days. I'm heading to Vermont tomorrow and plan to give it a workout over the next few days. It appears to be very high quality, and a bargain at that price.
