I'll second this as a fine organization.

Matt,

Welcome to our online community. Posts such as this are usually placed in the Announcements and Events forum rather than as stickies (there are too many posts such as this to make them all stickies): TU events, ladies FFing seminars, youth camps, Wounded Warriors, etc.

Not a big deal - good on you for getting the word out. Hopefully RR can get a few more entries.

Thanks,

Dave W
