

---

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : I never saw this before

I never saw this before

Author: : dsmith1427

Date: : 2013/5/28 18:38:35

URL:

I was on fishing creek this weekend and observed something I never saw before. There was a mother duck and her ducklings swimming along the bank below me and the Mother went crazy. She was up on her feet, frantically quacking and flapping her wings against the water. I continued to watch and saw the backside and tail of a furry animal as it was being chased from the water. Less then a minute later, I saw a mink running along the bank with a duckling in its mouth....