

Subject: : Hatch and Entomology Forum

Topic: : Bug ID

Re: Bug ID

Author: : troutbert

Date: : 2013/5/31 7:13:41

URL:

Quote:

Brownie101 wrote:

I thought GD's were only in the Pine Creek system in NC PA.

GDs are very widely distributed in the forested freestone streams of NC PA.

And not just NC PA. They are found in fertile forested freestoners in other parts of the state also.

The forested freestone streams with at least moderate fertility seem to have them, while the streams that are pretty infertile and acidic seem not to have them.