also is there any where around there that's large truck parking friendly?

No problem - the stone/dirt lot across the street from the fish hatchery lot is pretty big. From there it's about a hundred yard walk on the streamside path downstream to the fly shop parking lot.

You could park a semi in that lot with not much difficulty. Just don't park in the hatchery lot (paved) - they have signs up stating that lot is for visitors to the hatchery only.
