I was able to fish it this evening from 7ish till about 9:40. Caught 1 on a caddis dry, missed another, lost one on a brown drake dry, and caught a 3 on streamers. I was fishing a 2 fly rig at one point and almost caught 2 trout at the same time, but one of them popped off right before I got them to the net. That was fun. There were some brown drakes, as well as cahills, but there were very trout rising. I caught a handful of fish so it wasn't a bust, but I was hoping for some fast and furious topwater action! Oh well. My brother was with me and he caught one or two browns and a decent bow(probably from the lunker stocking). I'll post some pics in the morning.
