Nice post and pics salmonoid. FWIW I'd vote wild on each of the first 4 Browns...Pics 1 and 3 nearly certain, 2 and 4 maybe 65/35 wild. It helps to a degree that I know the general area you found them in and that probably leans me more toward wild even.

Very nice Brookie too...I've struggled on bigger Brookies so far this year. I've had many in the 7-8" range, but nothing bigger so far in 2013.
