Matt,

thanks for the heads up. We are staying at west canada creek campsites in Poland. It's going to be tough for me to get away since I'm hosting a group camping outing with about 20 people so it may be hard for me to get away. I am going to fish friday morning/afternoon with my wife and maybe saturday morning before everyone gets up, but we have to check out by 11 on sunday and be back home early sunday. next year i want to do the tourney if my schedule allows, sounds like a great program and good luck this weekend. The weather looks spotty at best.
