Welcome to the site.

I used to live in Susquehanna Co. near Jackson. You don't know how good you have it. Really. There are probably some nice wild trout within a short hike from where you live. And I mean hike, not drive. They are everywhere. Go knock on a farmers door. There are dozens of great spots up in that area. I've caught brookies up there in some of the smaller lakes even. Big ones.

Might have to explore a bit. It's been 13 years since I relocated to York so my information my no longer be accurate. Stay in your area. Let all the out of towners go and get skunked on the delaware.

Send me a pm. That's all I will discuss here.
