Go leather or go home. Cool, waterproof, and long life.

I believe mine is from BC hats (an Australian company). I've had it, wow, close to 15 years now, and still love mine. Looks a little silly, but does what it's supposed to.

They list their suppliers where you can order on the website somewhere. They have a bunch of slightly different hats. Mine originally had a suede finish, but I've put so much silicon spray on there I'm not sure the surface resembles the original anymore.
