on the cheap side my trusty old redington pursuit 8wt has been awesome especially for the price as a combo.

on the other hand i just got my hands on a mystic 10' 7wt m series, and a 7wt rio gold with it. only cast it with the line, but as for first cast thoughts the rod is definitely fast, and cant wait to get some weight on the end of the leader(should slow it down a bit), too bad everything bigger water wise is blown! though the lake is filling up with spawning bass so that will be the real test arena.
