Cabelas prestige plus is 50% off right now for Father's Day sale. I own one in a 5/6 and I have no complaints. It actually has a decent drag for a $50 reel and right now it is only $25. I highly recommend it especially for $25. The drag is very adjustable and smooth compared to most reels in that class. Some cheap reels the drag is either too tight or too loose and very jerky. But don't buy their fly line, I bought cabelas wf5f and hate it, casts like crap and floats like crap. Went back to my cheap $40 Scientific Anglers WF5F and it is 10 times better. But what I don't understand is the cabelas line is supposedly made by SA for cabelas. But anyway if you don't have a reel in mind yet, get it. For $25 I don't think you will find anything better.
