

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : It's snake time!

Re: It's snake time!

Author: : afishinado

Date: : 2013/6/10 7:51:13

URL:

I have a cabin in NE PA where there are a lot of rattlers. Everyone seems to believe rattlers only frequent rocky areas and/or in and around logs. While they are there, the most dangerous places, because they are hidden, are in the high weeds and especially in the dense ferns you find this time of year. If you hike in such areas, I recommend you wear snake chaps or stay at home.