

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : It's snake time!

Re: It's snake time!

Author: : k-bob

Date: : 2013/6/10 9:06:38

URL:

In the heat, I use breathable orvis silver sonic convertible waders with the material above the waist rolled down to be cooler. This is after this material above wader belt (and also my long sleeve fishing shirt) has been sprayed with permethrin. As with snakes, nothing is 100%, but I fish very small steams and never go in water over my waist anyhow. Permethtrin should reduce the chance of an infectious bite.

http://www.tickencounter.org/pub/tick_repellent_clothing.pdf