

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Streamside find

Re: Streamside find

Author: : troutbert

Date: : 2013/6/10 13:54:35

URL:

More likely it was from the old logging days. There were logging railroads built up along a great many streams and you can very often see the old logging rr grades.

I've seen a lot of old iron "stuff" out in the woods left lay there during the logging days.

There are people who have gone around with metal detectors and collected a lot of it, but you still see some laying around in the woods.