^^ gfen you're a.... but that's funny.

look for a pelt dealer in your area. i went to a general sportsman's show this spring and yeah i'll prob buy most of my animal hair from a guy i met that day. the day before i paid $4 for a 2"x2" square of raccoon belly hair, while the guy at that show had whole tanned hides for $15. heck i picked up a coyote tail for $7 and have barely used the tip lol.

actually thought about starting a tying material site just from what i paid vs what i could pay...
