BelAir:

Your final comment is part of the paragraph that talked about the 50 yards guy. I felt that you were also complaining about that person. The first person you have the right to be upset about as well as the litterbuggers. But even then 30 yards = 90 feet, and he only casted 10 times before he left. (I'd let it go) If you are already picking up trash where/when you fish my hats off to ya. God only knows what the ratio is between those that litter and those that pick up.

Also when someone leaves multiple questions/comments in a post we (the viewers) have the right to challenge those we want to challenge.

WildTrout:

can you tell the fake beggars from those who are actually in need?

As I asked before:

I really would like to know how many of us Flyfisherpeople provide Flyfishing courtesy as part of instructions when we teach the art? Before you answer this - give me some titles of books that address this issue.....

Nice bass FarmerDave -

But your clothing has got to go - never mind I don't want to see you in the nude.
