About 15yrs ago I lived in the Wallenpaupack area. All I can say is wow. That area has some of the best lake fishing that I have ever come across. We lived in an area next to Fairview Lake that was absolutely awesome. It was nothing to catch 13"+ smallies just roaming the shore. Plus the trout fishing was good too in the Lackawaxen River. The closest town was Hawley, PA. So that can give you a general area if your parents are leaning towards the Wallenpaupack area. Also, if you're into ice fishing, that's probably one of the best areas in PA as far as dependable ice goes... Just my 2 cents. Good luck on the search. It's a good problem to have...
