Hi forks - Looking forward to seeing you there.

Yes, this event is still on.

It'll feature instruction on topics pretty much across the board - from gear setup, to fly selection, casting instruction, etc.

Rather than a pre-selected program, we'll teach whatever the newbies would like to cover.

We'll follow this by having on-stream time with everyone, and hopefully get everyone into some fish.

Think about areas where you'd like help, and we'll cover it before we hit the stream.
