So is this like an organized class room event or is it more of a casual thing? More experienced guys grab a noob and go to a spot and fish? I'm just curious as i have never been to one...

Casual organized outside classroom chaos.

It'll be a good time and given how the brush up days went last year, it'll be tailored on the fly to meet the wants/needs of those who show up.

And probably no noob grabbin. It's not polite.

Heritage Ed wouldn't organize no shoddy event. 😄 😄 😄
