

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Bushkill Dewatered

Re: Bushkill Dewatered

Author: : sapper6

Date: : 2013/6/12 9:06:07

URL:

Lonewolve,

Just to clear up a misconception, cement is an ingredient in concrete, just like flour is an ingredient in bread.

Cement + sand + aggregate (gravel) makes concrete in an irreversible chemical reaction. It is not possible to make cement from concrete, or concrete from broken up concrete, unless you are just using it as a substitute for regular aggregate.

I have enjoyed the sulfur hatch on the Bushkill, but it gets a little crowded for me.