You got me Becker! If they are stocking some fingerling bows in your neck of the woods I would say you should have some pretty exciting fishing in the fall once those fish put on some weight. I am going to keep that in mind... I have been missing Riverwalcks!

They have been stocking them for years. I really can not say I have caught many bows on this stream. All those fingerlings they have stocked pretty much disappear. Browns, walleye, striper bait? No idea.

RiverWalcks is the standard after fishing beering hole. Then again, secret wing place is a standard lunch fishing stop.
