

---

Subject: : Stream Reports

Topic: : Penns Creek, Centre County 6-9-13

Re: Penns Creek, Centre County 6-9-13

Author: : pcray1231

Date: : 2013/6/12 16:24:03

URL:

The olives are likely Drunella variety. Yeah, a 14 or so. Tis the season. Very different from the Baetid's that many associate with BWO's, completely different bugs. Spinner falls at dark can be massive and excellent fishing.

Another common "June" bug on Penns is blue quills, jenny's, or whatever you call paraleps. You can sometimes catch decent spinner falls in late morning/early afternoons. But they are considerably smaller.