Troutbert is a wimp.

Fish where you want, just be much more observant of your surroundings, especially with regard to your backcast.

Avoid casting shadows on a stretch and move slowly. Drab clothing helps. As pcray said, get as close as you can. In high or stained water-- that means closer than normal.

The trout will tell you where they are and what they want and you will hear them louder and clearer as you enter the Zen of it. Amen.
