Anywhere west of Denver you can find trout. In less then a years time, I spent 4 months in and around Denver and Colorado Springs. I didn't like The S. Platte, for reasons I won't go into here. But there's plenty of other water to fish. From Estes Park to the lower end of South Park is all good. I loved Clear Creek when I didn't have a lot of time to get to some fishing. I liked the N. Fork of S. Platte.

Way up Clear Creek there are Beaver Ponds full of trout. Above Spinney Reservoir on S. Platte can be very good too.
