

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : South Holston River

Re: South Holston River

Author: : JackM

Date: : 2013/6/13 20:52:39

URL:

The tailwater anglers are very understanding of and have a good relationship with the TVA. All interests are properly respected. TVA is about power generation first, with a concurrent (and consequent) obligation of flood control. The trout fishery is respected, however, but still secondary. That said, if you know the schedule, you can have a terrific experience for mostly stocked trout, I believe. But large, rising trout at that. Enjoy.