?????? I don't get what you're trying to say.

I think I may have made a post about this creek last spring and used that first picture in the OP(last spring is when it was taken, as I stated in the post). The other pics are obviously from this year. I fish this stream a handful of times a year(if that) along with a gazzillion other streams/lakes I fish in OH and PA. I think it's safe to say I do a lot of fly fishing, every weekend and during the week if I can.
