Ok, well, if I do get a free day, this guy is probably my first contact. It's a little far from where I'll be based, but if I get a day, I wanna get down to the Alps. Doesn't look like it'll take any longer than going to central PA from SE PA on a day trip, which is TOTALLY worth it to fish the freakin Alps.

Have my doubts about the yodeling, but I could get into the alphorn.
