Pcray that sounds like a lot of fun. If no one takes you up on being the noob, I'd be interested. But I'd also like to see what is going on at the brush up first before I committed. If someone there has something to offer which I really need to learn, which is beyond likely, I'd rather focus on that.

I really like fly fishing, but crashing through unknown forests is a life long passion.

In other news, I am planning to arrive by 9.
