Beast - the WBA water is mighty fine. When I stay there I often ffish only there. Floaters and waders can fish there, and awhile ago you could pay them a fee for parking and daily access. The basic rate is for lodging at The Lodge, aka The White House (it's remodeled and no longer white). The cabins are pretty plush, and great if you have several staying.

thanks for the info Les, I see the Capra has very good reviews on trip advisor, but I need water access primarily, which WBA has, not sure if Capra does.

Is WBA fly fishing only, anyone know? I may bring a spinner chucker, don't worry I'll have them crimp barbs and cut down to at least two hooks, haha.
