Anyone catchin any Muskies? I've been paying dues pretty hard. Out of the last 3 times I've been out had nothing but follows the last two times. Each time four Muskies made appearances. No hook ups. On Father's Day though the creek was a little brown and swollen. I hooked up and fought a 40-42ish fish. It was epic, my hands were shaking afterword, unfortunately I lost the fish, she shook the hook loose. It was pretty damn awesome though, for not catching it.
