Just wanted to bump this up and remind everyone about it. After we get past the July 4th weekend I'll start getting a list together of who is coming and what they will be bringing to the event. As we get closer I'll also put an approximate count out there so that everyone has an idea of how much to bring.

Old Lefty has told me he's planning to attend so have your casting questions ready! 🍷

The Brush-up day was a blast so I think this 2nd annual will be a great time too. The LL had tricos already coming off and the fish were on them.
