Thanks chrome, I shot it all with a drift pov camera (samething as a go pro different body shape, and far better to hold n shoot with). Yeah idk about what dslr body id go with if I were to make that jump but right now I shoot stills with a d700 and love it other than the full frame 12 mpxl sensor, almost any cropping at all and you start to see the pixles.

But I would really love to play around with a nikon dslr vid body, just to have he ability of shooting with my 80-200mm 2.8, that lense is my baby.
