If I'm using hip boots, I put a sandwich, sippy drink, extra leader & a mini medical kit (Antiseptic wipes & bandaids) in a fanny pack that I sling over my shoulder.

Then wear a small carpenter's nail pouch tied around my waist. Only has 2 pockets in the front, holds a fly box on 1 side & several tippet spools and needle nose pliers on the other. If you buy a new one, "dust" it with camo spray paint to help with your stealth.

I'm over 60 & have fished heavy since I was a teenager, have never owner a fishing vest.

To me, a critical thing is a big cool bottle of water and some sunflower seeds in the truck to finish off as I drive home.
