Last year my line painting company striped I-78 east and westbound from Cedar Crest Blvd to the Jersey border. I saw a creek under us that looked real nice. Wasnt quite in Easton so must have been Saucon cr. Checked the map on this site Bushkill was no where near where i was. Thanks to all for the info. Worth a trip during the afternoon hours to find the parking along the Bushkill and perhaps stay for a little evening hatch action. Thanks again fellas!!
