For those of you who knock it, please continue to do so and stand elbow to elbow fighting over a 12 inch stockie while the rest of us who live on the other side walk miles of river fishing for 15lb spooky, selective, and challenging fish that can remind us why we paid money for a machined fly reel with a stout drag system and plenty of room for backing! (yeah... backing, that's the dacron stuff under your fly line that most of you haven't seen since it was spooled on for you at the fly shop!

And yes... I am aware that was a run on sentence!
