

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : Landing the Big Ones on the Jetty

Re: Landing the Big Ones on the Jetty

Author: : Fishidiot

Date: : 2013/7/3 7:53:09

URL:

Well.....you won't win any fans if you take an 8WT with 10lb tippet out on an ocean jetty in November when big fish are running and the surf is heavy.

With that said, a courteous request to pass other anglers is usually well rec'd and folks will get out of your way. FFers often don't have long handled nets or gaffs, but spin guys often do and will sometimes offer to help land that big fish.