I don't have any new pictures for you guys, but I figured I'd throw in an update after my days off. I met some guides at a fly shop event down by the river on Saturday evening. Got to talking with all of them, and ended up floating the Yellowstone Sunday with 2 of them on their day off. Then yesterday I took the bus down to the river around 5:30 and fished til about 8:30. Caught 6 rainbows in that time, so I'm pretty satisfied there. Finally got my fly tying stuff shipped out here. It might be time to take the plunge and buy the hackle that I've been avoiding buying.
