keep in mind that many of us here would be happy to show you some tying technique. there a re forum members close to you,and tons in the burgh or philly if you visit either.

you can always tell us what flies you use ,and we can tell you what materials to get.

unlike others here,i do like kits,but all you really need are a vice,scissors,bobbin holder,thread and hooks.a pen barrel can do as a half hitch tool.
