Very nice write-up and awesome pics! Last July I made a trip out to Colorado(also my first time out west) and it was just amazing. Fell in love with the fishing and the scenery. I fished Boulder Creek, South Boulder, Clear Creek, the Big Thompson, and a few streams in RMNP. Great fishing for browns, bows, cutties, and even got a brookie. If I ever make it out there again the South Platte is on the list as well as some of those high mountain lakes. CO's a special place, can't wait to go back sometime. Glad you enjoyed your first time out there.
