NJ Tom called me from Hancock. He went and looked at the shehawken access. He said you can go down as far as the grassy parking for boat trailers on the left. Beyond that is a 6' deep ravine. The topsoil is gone, there are 2 dozen full grown trees uprooted / scattered about and it appeared the ramp area is MIA. I forgot to mention.... The creek channel moved and runs along and through the launch!! There must have been some crazy rain totals up there.
