Since I have been a bass fisherman for the last 25+ years, I have been spending the last two days following the IFTD/ICAST show in Las Vegas with all the new bass products...but it has been the first time in 20 some years that both shows have been featured together. In any case, I was pretty excited to hear about new, the totally USA made, Cabela's WLZ reel and American Legend rod series...anyone else has any info on these models? I am interested in both. Thanks!
