I'm looking forward to this so it's probably going to be a rain out.

Be optimistic! I feel great weather, great food, great people and maybe even great fishing.

Those on the fence need to get off the fence and join us. You cannot really appreciate how helpful and fun our PAFF brethren can be until you experience time with them! Besides it's a bit selfish too, when I get to help someone get their first trout on a fly rod, it might as well be my first one too! And I'm not the exception, all of H-A's helpers (after all the newbie gig is his and we are just lucky to get to share it) enjoy your success!

There were a few people at the brush-up day that said they wanted to come yet I haven't seen you jump it yet. You know who you are! I REALLY hope to see some newbies there!
