I gave my friend the option (with a warning that trout would be tougher to catch) of warm water or trout fishing and he chose trout. With water temps. down a little on the tully we went out for a couple hours today. He didn't catch any trout, but he got a few bluegill and little smallies.

He had a blast! We are planning on going out next week to get him equipped so I don't have to use my old $20 walmart rod when we fish together.

In short, I have gotten two people addicted to the sport this year.
