

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Valley Creek Surprise 7-14-13

Re: Valley Creek Surprise 7-14-13

Author: : englishprof

Date: : 2013/7/15 20:52:43

URL:

Okay, I'll say it. Those browns have virtually no predators and could probably use a few for the long term health of the fishery. Over the last five years, I think I've seen four or five herons and one mink. That poor bass poses absolutley no threat to those trout. I guess I'm some sort of a hypocrte, because, if they allowed any kind of harvest, I still wouldn't keep any.