

Subject: : Hatch and Entomology Forum

Topic: : Highspire Service Plaza 6-23 - bug questions

Re: Highspire Service Plaza 6-23 - bug questions

Author: : Chaz

Date: : 2013/7/17 16:28:40

URL:

I've made numerous stops along highways during the evening hours in the summer and have instantly been swarmed by bugs at gas pumps. This time of the year especially along warm water streams there are dozens of different stages and bugs hatching from giant hex's to tiny yellow or cream colored flies. Add to that there are usually a couple of different species of stone flies maybe a dobson fly or 2, and caddis and midges.