I'm very sad to see that you won't be making it. If you don't mind, feel free to change "chaplet" to "chapter". Had issues typing the original post via phone.

Beast,

The water by the outlet is so cold, it makes your legs ache. If you last more than an hour in Deposit, you are more of a man than I am. Remember that above the gamelands requires a NY license. Getting in a "few reps" prior to the jam won't matter unless the conditions in October match when you are there in July. Not likely. The flows vary so much that lies change, temps will be different and pre-spawn will also be in play in October. You can fish there twice a week from May until October and never have the same conditions twice. It always is changing and you have to adapt to find the fish. We'll get you onto fish...don't worry about that. 25 yrs up there and I still feel like a first timer a majority of the time. If I go in the next 2 weeks, you are welcome to join me.
