Allentown is a breeze. inlaws live a stones throw from the Monocacy. I will do my best to come up. I will be fishing the area tomorrow morning for a bit as well.

Where is the best place to list some of these materials I need to get rid of? I have them all packed and preserved nicely but I would feel much better if someone else had a chance to enjoy them. I really dont need 12 grizzly hackles or the 8 matching soft hackle sets... Oh and there are three Cree hackles in there as well.....
