Crawdad I was out on Moraine yesterday for bass, started with the fly rod went to spin gear later. Anyhow, when dropping my boat off ran into a guy that landed a 51 inch musky early in the am, not on flyrod. I haven't targeted them yet with a flyrod but would like to. Was wondering if there would be interest in setting up a mini musky jam at Moraine, I would think some of the Western Pa. guys would be up for it. Norm
