Tim,

J wades 99% of the time and I float 99% of the time. I just got a text from the nephew so I'll have a 14 yr old to babysit. You are welcome to join us or stop by the motel any evening. I'll share info from our day on the water. Bad thing about the Delaware....what happens Monday has zero to do with what will occur on Tuesday. It's always different. If you can cast accurately 35-40', you can catch some. It's more observing than fishing though.
